

Project Documentation

Task: Create a Frontend Project using REACT where a user need to fill a form and on Submit the form data of every submitted form is shown on the admin page.

Project Title: Adventure Website

Technologies Used : HTML, CSS, JS, REACT.

Github Link : <https://github.com/tanya-03/Project-Adventure-.git>

Project Description:

This website is usually for Adventurers. It contains information about adventure and what precautions you need to take during adventure. The main work done in the project was for the Contact Us part. The contact us part just takes the input and stores it in the back-end which can only be accessed by the admin.

How to Install and Run the Project:

This is a React application and hence needs to be forked and cloned in your system and then Run it with the code npm start in the console with pre- requisite of nodejs installed in your system and the directory should be the one in which package.json file is present.

To access the admin portal just add "/admin" after the domain name. For Eg: "http://localhost:3000/admin".

Password and Username: admin.

ABOUT US

Adventure Travel finds the best adventure companies and stories for you to constantly remain equipped and inspired to travel the world. We are the voice of travel businesses committed to long-term, sustainable growth of adventure travel around the globe. These businesses are members of the Adventure Travel Trade Association and are committed to values that drive a necessary movement to change travel so that it benefits the businesses, the people and the environment of the places we travel.

WHAT IS ADVENTURE TRAVEL?

Adventure Travel is the go-to source for information on adventure travel that prioritizes sustainability, serves as a force for good, and transforms people and places.

From research and trends to best travel practices, ideal gear, and destinations and operators with outstanding commitments to responsible travel, we have everything you need to make sure your adventures align with your values.

Life-changing travel must also be sustainable travel. By bringing together a growing community of people committed to traveling thoughtfully and considerately, we help shape the adventure and eco-tourism industry as it grows. In response to travelers' desires, tour operators, destinations and travel advisors are increasingly working to ensure their experiences provide an unforgettable journey in a responsible, sustainable way. Such commitment in turn honors the people, environment and economies of incredible destinations around the world.

Through compelling images and well-crafted stories, research and curated news of interest, Adventure.Travel inspires the curious to try new destinations, branch out in their activities, interact deeply with nature, and experience different cultures in the most respectful way possible.
